

Parcan

makes your irrigation procedure easier *

Parcan

NaOCl 5% solution
for easy root canal irrigation

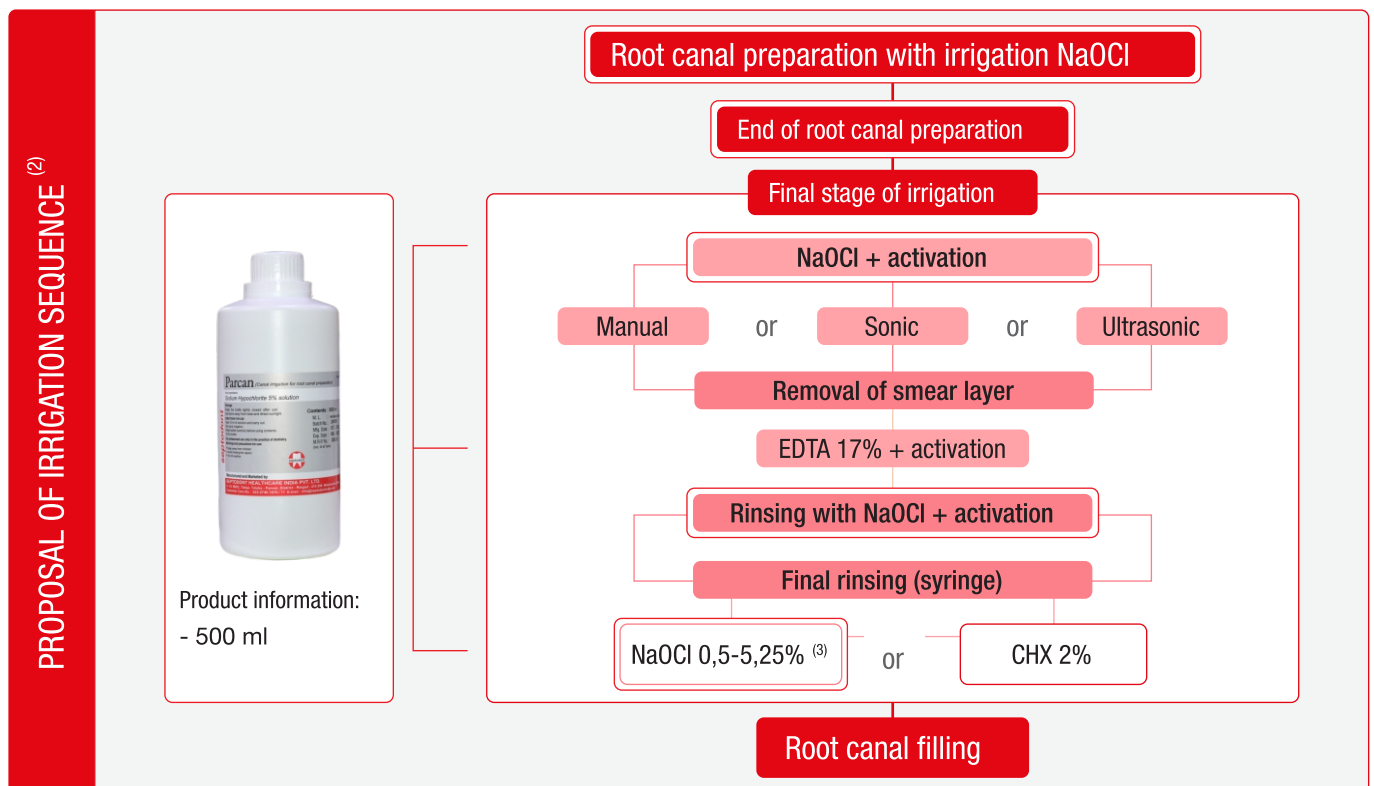

Parcan: Sodium Hypochlorite solution (5%)

Intended for debridement during instrumentation⁽¹⁾

Features	Advantages	Benefits
Strong oxidizing property	Antimicrobial effect	Desinfection of the root canal
Purified NaOCl	5% concentration	Ready to use

Irrigation is a key part of successful root canal treatment.

The most important functions of irrigations is to dissolve tissue and to have cleansing effect. The combination of solutions in a specific sequence is crucial for the success of the root canal treatment.

(1) Zehnder, M. (2006). Root canal irrigants. Journal of Endodontics, 32(5), 389-398.

(2) Prada, I., et al. (2019). Update of the therapeutic planning of irrigation and intracanal medication in root canal treatment. A literature review. Journal of Clinical and Experimental Dentistry, 11(3), e185-e193.

(3) American Association of Endodontists. (2017). Root Canal Irrigants and Disinfectants.

(4) Refer to the instructions for use.

Septodont Healthcare India Pvt. Ltd.
C-1/2, MIDC, Industrial Area Taloja, Navi Mumbai, 410208
www.septodont.in

Follow us on social media channels:

